

CLIC Challenges

During registration on a Friday, the children complete their CLIC Challenge. This exercise isn't timed, but does cover the work the children have completed in class. They will bring their CLIC Challenge home with them so that they can practise the questions they got wrong in preparation for the next week.