

On a Friday, your child will complete a CLIC and SAFE worksheet. This is a maths sheet which constantly revises all the work we have studied so far. It works the same way as the Learn Its where the children move onto the next sheet after receiving full marks. Your child will bring their sheet home each Friday so they can revise the type of questions they may be getting wrong in preparation for the test the following week.